

Funeral Prayers for

Alberto Aiello

26.5.1943 - 4.10.2020

My beautiful Daddy!

I wasn't ready to say goodbye, you were gone too soon without a sign and I don't know how I'm going to live without you by my side.
No words can explain the way I am missing you and the emptiness I'm feeling inside.

I wish you could come back, so I could talk to you one more time and you could plant that little fig tree you couldn't wait to bring to me.

You really were a gift from God, you were faultless and touched so many hearts.
You had a heart so pure and as big as this world
You taught me how to love by giving the best of who you are always, without want and without need. Without you I wouldn't be who I am or where I am today.

As I laid next to you on the floor my head on the pillow next to yours, I thanked you for being my best man!
For walking with me through my hardest times, for giving me hope when I thought there was none.
I will never forget the sacrifices you made for all of us.

I only hope you are as proud of me as I am so proud of you

I loved you everyday and I will miss you everyday.

You are
My protector
My hero
My strength
My heart, my soul
My today
My tomorrow
My forever
You are My world

I used to be your angel and now you are mine.
And I will always be your little girl!

ORDER OF SERVICE

Entrance Hymn: 'Here I am Lord' - John Michael Talbot

Introduction: Fr. Manny Lomagno

Opening Prayer: Fr. Manny Lomagno

Into your hands, O Lord, we humbly entrust our brother Alberto. In this life you embraced him with your tender love; deliver him now from every evil and bid him enter eternal rest. The old order has passed away: welcome him then into paradise, where there will be no sorrow, no weeping nor pain, but the fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

All: Amen

Eulogy: Joseph Aiello (son) & James Gentile (on behalf of grandchildren)

DVD PRESENTATION: 'O sole mio' & 'Nessun Dorma' - Luciano Pavarotti

Reading: 2 Corinthians 4:14-5:1 - read by James Gentile

We know that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm: read by Natalie Gentile

Gospel: Fr. Manny Lomagno

A Reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me."

Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?"

And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me."

Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me."

Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?"

Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.

The Gospel of the Lord.
