Words of Welcome

Opening Prayer

The Readings

'Tina The Tree' by Andrew McDonough

"Oh no! Gwen's laid an egg, Steve's gone bonkers, Lily's about to be eaten and a tree just ran by - if this sounds like a normal day for you, then stop, find a shady spot down by the river and read this book.

A great Australian story for teaching about helping others in a healthy way."

Based upon Psalm 1: 2-3 and Luke 13: 18-19"

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Dedication

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflective Music

Come light a candle: bring light to your heart prayer

The Committal

Let us live in such a way
That when we die
our love will survive
And continue to grow. Amen. Michael Leung

Words of reflection & Journey - Rev Ian Turnnidge

A Poem of Farewell
My comfort will come from the sea

My comfort will come from the sea.
The stillness of calm waves will gently drift by
I will be as one with the sea.

When the sun sets on the ocean blue, Remember me as I will always Remember you.

As the sun rises...go live as full as can be
Apart... you and me...
But be at peace
For I am free

Elsie Alice Randall

27-04-1930 – 18-10-2020

In loving memory of Elsie Randall. So dearly treasured by her family and friends, both in Australia and England.

Elsie was born in Lymington, England to Hilda Bran and Herbert Gregory.

She married her childhood sweetheart, Geoffrey Randall and the two emigrated to Australia in 1990 with her mother Hilda, to be with their children Susan and Michael.

Elsie was a loving mother-in law to Greg and Erica.

She was adored by her grandchildren Kirk, Greg, Aidan, James, Rhiannon and James.
She warmly welcomed into her life her grandchildren's partners, Tammy, Jolene, Sara, Melissa and Tyler and delighted in being a great-grandmother to Flynn, Byron,

Wade, Rhys, Sianna, Reid, Maveric, Chloe and Jacob

Elsie had a passion for community and was active in the View Club, Red Hat Society and was a talented quilter and keen cake decorator.

She made life-long friends from those groups

Elsie happily spent her last few years in Banfields Aged Care in Cowes. She passed away peacefully on Sunday morning and is now with Dad.

She was irreplaceable and will be deeply missed by the Randall, Wood, and Humphry families
