

In Loving Memory of

Anne Price

9th May 1939 - 6th August 2021

Eternal Love by Anne Price

If I should go before you
Grieve for me – but not for long
For I could never leave you
I am with you forever,
loving you forever.
Just whisper my name
And you will find me there.
Time reaches out its healing hand
And as your life goes on
Know that I shall smile and wish you joy
Then find a special place for me
Just a corner of your heart
That is mine alone, and place me there
And I shall rest content forever.
