Reading: The Dash - by Linda Ellis

*I read of a man who stood to speak at a funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on the tombstone from the beginning...
to the end.*

He noted that first came the date of birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time they spent alive on earth and now only those who loved them know what that little line is worth.

If we treat each other with respect and more often wear a smile... remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So when your eulogy is being read, with your life's actions to rehash, would you be proud of the things they say about how you lived your dash?
